

Futura Electric Contact Cleaning

The Futura Auto uses electrical contact through the cutter to determine where the edge of the key blank is located and where the jaw position is on the machine.

It is important to make sure that all shavings are cleaned from the cutter and clamp surfaces after each side of the key is cut. If shavings remain on the cutter or jaw surfaces, this can create a false contact that may result in cuts being too deep or too shallow.

